Downtown Olympia is nestled at the southern-most tip of Puget Sound, beneath Mt. Rainier and within sight of the majestic Olympic Mountains.

One of the oldest communities and the capital city of Washington State, Olympia, population 49,670, is a city rich in heritage, diversity and culture.

Parks, marinas, fountains, and the Percival Landing popular public boardwalk await you in the waterfront area. An easy stroll up Capitol Way takes you to the state's impressive Capitol Campus. Downtown Olympia's blend of historic buildings, beautiful scenery and eclectic retail and dining experiences offer an undeniable appeal to visitors and residents alike.
